The C.I.A. And Its 12 Critics

By Tom Wicker

Every time the Pentagon wants more money, it starts talking about the dangers of war. And every time any so-called "national security" agency finds itself being criticized, it replies that the national security is being endangered.

Director William E. Colby of the Central Intelligence Agency has taken to that classic bureaucratic pattern, claiming that "exaggerated" charges against the C.I.A. have resulted in "almost hysterical excitement" that has "placed American intelligence in danger." But who's hysterical? Mr. Colby sounds nearer to it than anyone else.

In fact, Senator Frank Church of Idaho, who will chair the special Senate committee to investigate the "intelligence community," said in a statement following Mr. Colby's—though not specifically in response to it—that he was "surprised in recent days at the hysteria of those who are fearful that this committee is out to wreck these agencies." So should anyone be surprised who knows Mr. Church's moderate temperament, the responsible makeup of his committee, the fact that its senior Republican member is the conservative, military-oriented John Tower of Texas, and that another member is that staunch defender of national security, Barry Goldwater of Arizona? Some wrecking crew!

IN THE NATION

Who's being hysterical might also be judged by the fact that Mr. Colby was not forced to call a news conference or to issue a press release to get his fears for the national security on the record. The House Defense Appropriations Subcommittee, which "oversees" the C.I.A. budget to the extent that anyone does, provided him a hospitable forum and three hours in which to state his views openly—something C.I.A. directors rarely do except when they want to sell the public on the

The subcommittee did not, predictably, provide searching cross-examination.

Nevertheless, since Mr. Colby was clearly trying to suggest that the C.I.A. is being maligned and the nation endangered by irresponsible criticism, certain responses have to be made—aside from that excellent piece of country wisdom that "bit dogs bark loudest." For one thing, the oldest bureaucratic defense known to man is to try to shift the focus of attention from the substance of charges to those who make them—to convince the public that the critics are the problem, rather than the thing being criticized.

Even before that friendly House subcommittee, for example, Mr. Colby conceded that the C.I.A. at one time or another had kept files on four members of Congress, some of them "anti-war." How do we know there were not others? For that matter, how does he know? And just recently, in an interview with Barbara Walters on "Today," Charles Colson made a strong case that the C.I.A. knew in advance of the break-in at the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist. Saying that was "beyond dispute," Mr. Colson continued:

"They processed the so-called 'casing' photos, they provided all the equipment . . . it's very clear to me that they knew about that and actively participated in it and assisted it, provided the means for it, helped with the operation from beginning to end . . . some of the memos I saw certainly went as high as Mr. Helms." (Richard Helms was director of the C.I.A. in 1971, when the break-in took place.)

Mr. Colby has questioned Mr. Colson's credibility, which is indeed questionable—but more so than that of the C.I.A., whose way of life is secrecy and undercover operation? More so than that of Mr. Helms, whose testimony on several points has been misleading or incomplete? The point is that a multiplicity of such allegations of plainly illicit activities—not just by the C.I.A. but by the F.B.I. too—have come to public attention. The substance of those allegations needs to be examined and verified; and if any of them can indeed be verified, perhaps others must be sought. In the course of doing that, questions of the credibility and responsibility of those who make the allegations will answer themselves.

One does not need to take Mr. Jeb Magruder, for example, as a pillar of credibility to be struck by his remark in a lecture this week that had it not been for the Watergate exposures, the Nixon Administration would have become a "perpetual Presidency." By 1976, he said, according to the Associated Press, "we would have been in the position to elect whom-ever we wanted to elect. Once you learn to use the levers of power it becomes easy." Were the F.B.I. and the C.I.A. such "levers of power"? Could they ever be?

Mr. Colby does not seem to understand that the question really is not the difficulties presently being caused for the C.I.A. The question is about what Representative Lucien Nedzi of Michigan has called "the appropriate role of secret institutions in a free, democratic society." The C.I.A. is not a value in itself, to be protected or fostered at whatever expense to such a society. It exists only to serve that society, and it does not do so if it undermines, threatens or ignores the rights of that society's citizens, no matter what "national security" justification it tries to plead.

In Our Opinion

Assign Congress To Hunt Bombers

Here we go again.

The bombing of a State Department restroom and followup phone call from someone calling itself the "Weather Underground" is reminiscent of times past.

The bombers are apparently protesting any economic aid to non-Communists in South Vietnam and Cambodia.

There's a certain irony in the timing. At the very moment the CIA and FBI are being raked over the coals by self-righteous members of Congress, a radical group like the ones under surveillance in the late '60s and early '70s pulls off a terrorist act.

We wouldn't blame the FBI for turning the investigation of the latest bombing over to the congressional committee investigating government surveillance. Let the legislators handle it.

Some measure of watchfulness must be maintained over agencies like the FBI and CIA. The repugnant aspect of it all is congressmen leading the media bandwagon to roast the agencies.

Many of these congressmen and senators knew bloody well what these agencies were doing in years past, but never raised a whisper, let alone a howl. Now, with home-grown terrorism seemingly behind us, the legislators play dumb and feign shock or outrage over what they call "disturbing revelations."

You can bet if a bomb went off in the Senate or House chambers, Congress would call out the FBI, CIA and any other agency versed in intelligence gathering.

What's more, the legislators would wonder why the FBI and CIA couldn't immediately produce the 10 most likely suspects.

"Where's your surveillance mechanism," some senator would demand.

What we have, folks, is Congress at its hypocritical worst.

House Democrats Endorse Own Study on Intelligence

By JAMES M. NAUGHTON
Special to The New York Times

b6
b7C

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29—A Democratic study group unanimously recommended today that the House create a bipartisan select committee to investigate the activities of all Government intelligence agencies.

The proposal, made by seven Democratic representatives appointed to the study group two days ago by Speaker Carl Albert, virtually assured that the House would follow the Senate in consolidating mushrooming intelligence inquiries under one new committee.

The Senate voted, 82 to 4, on Monday to create an 11-member panel to determine whether the Central Intelligence Agency, the Federal Bureau of Investigation and more than a dozen other Federal agencies had acted illegally or improperly in discharging their surveillance functions.

planned to conduct an investigation into charges of illegal domestic spying by the C.I.A., he had concluded that a new select committee would be the "only sensible way" to explore questions about the conduct of various other information gathering agencies.

Caucus Must Vote

The proposal requires endorsement by the House Democratic Steering and Policy Committee and the caucus of all 290 House Democrats before the full House can vote to establish the select committee and fund its investigation. But Mr. Nedzi's embrace of the approach appeared to remove the last significant hurdle to a centralized House inquiry.

The House Republican leader, Representative John J. Rhodes of Arizona, told reporters this morning that he favored the establishment of a select committee. He said it would avoid "running the risk" of a fragmented investigation by half a dozen House panels, each of which has limited jurisdiction over some of the various intelligence agencies.

The study group's recommendation was a victory for Representative Michael J. Harrington, Democrat of Massachusetts, who said he was "surprised" by Mr. Nedzi's decision to yield jurisdiction. Mr. Harrington had been urging a select committee since Congress convened two weeks ago and he had threatened to seek a caucus vote to create the panel if Democratic leaders did not.

Tremendous Pressure

Mr. Harrington said that he expected to be in a minority when the study group met today. The other members, drawn from the House Democratic leadership and rank and file, were Representatives Robert N. Giaimo of Connecticut, John J. McFall and John E. Moss of California, Jonathan B. Bingham of the Bronx and Mendel J. Davis of South Carolina.

Mr. Giaimo, the chairman of the study panel, said that he had been reluctant to go along with Mr. Harrington because "I don't think the answer to every problem is to create a new committee." But Mr. Giaimo said that there was "tremendous pressure" in the party caucus to set up a committee with wide jurisdiction and a broad mandate to propose methods for improving Congressional supervision of the intelligence community.

Mr. McFall, the House Democratic whip, and Mr. Nedzi both said that they hoped the House inquiry would focus more on constructive remedies than on what Mr. Nedzi described as "past history." The reference apparently was to disclosures by The New York Times and other publications of allegedly improper surveillance activities by the C.I.A. and the F.B.I. in recent years.

"We're dealing with something that is inherently irreconcilable—secrecy in an open society," Mr. Nedzi said.

Mr. McFall said in an interview that there had probably been a "temptation" for various recent Presidents, Democrats or Republicans, "to use a bunch of well-trained detectives available to them." He added that he was "not at all sure their intentions were bad."

"Lack of Attention"

At the same time, he said, a thorough investigation would demonstrate that "we don't want people to feel there is any cover-up or lack of attention to intelligence agencies."

Mr. Nedzi's resolution called for a report by the select committee to the House "as soon as practicable" but no later than Jan. 31, 1976, on the conduct of a dozen specific intelligence agencies "and any other instrumentalities of the United States Government engaged in intelligence activities."

The agreement to pursue a broad inquiry but one independent of the Senate, apparently doomed efforts by some in Congress to set up a joint House-Senate committee. But House members said that such a joint oversight panel might well be one of the eventual recommendations of the investigating committee.

Liaison with Capitol Hill by the Office of Legal Counsel resulted in an arrangement whereby Laboratory representatives could meet with those members of the Capitol Police Force handling security surveys for the U. S. Congress. Laboratory personnel met with members of the Capitol Police Force on 5/6/75 and 5/8/75 at their headquarters, 331 First Street, NE, Washington, D. C. At the meeting on 5/6/75 an examination of their survey equipment revealed that it was adequate, however it did not meet the level of sophistication or quality available at the present state of the art. Further discussion revealed that the training received by members of the police force handling their responsibility was limited.

On 5/8/75 Laboratory Supervisors Wilbur G. Stevens and [redacted] met with [redacted] and some of his staff members which included [redacted] Investigative Unit, and [redacted] Bomb Disposal Unit. The discussion at this meeting centered around steps which could be taken to update their present security survey equipment as well as additional measures which could be put into practice to enhance their technical expertise in this area. Laboratory personnel furnished them with the names of manufacturers of additional survey equipment as well as suggestions as to the establishment of an in-house training program.

Memorandum [] to []
RE: SECURITY SURVEYS - SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE
ACTIVITIES - HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES -
CAPITOL POLICE DEPARTMENT

At the conclusion of this conference, [] expressed his sincere appreciation to the Bureau for the excellent help and guidance extended to him and his staff in this matter of mutual interest, and expressed the hope that he could call on us again in the event he or his staff needed to tap our reservoir of knowledge. The Chief was assured that we would be available if needed in this capacity.

It appears that the Capitol Police Force has been forced into the untenable position of handling this responsibility for the Congress, and as a result are attempting to establish some degree of self-reliance and outward credibility being completely inexperienced in this area of technical expertise. Because of this, it is felt that the Bureau should move cautiously in any continuing liaison with the Capitol Police concerning security survey matters.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that any continuing liaison with the Capitol Hill Police Force be handled by mature and experienced Special Agent Supervisors, who are completely familiar with security survey matters.

Reference is made to my memo letter dated 4-3-75 captioned as above (cc attached).

This is to advise that as of 5-7-75 we have received and ordered to the field a total of 96 requests from the SSC for investigations of its staff members. An additional case was received on 5-8-75 which is being ordered to the field immediately. As a result of referenced memo, [redacted] contacted the SSC which was in accord with a more realistic deadline on remaining investigations, except "a few" specials which would still be handled on an expedite basis, such as afforded Presidential appointments. Of all cases received to date only six have been designated as nonexpedite.

It is noted recent articles in the media have contained criticism of Congressman Lucien Nedzi for delay in staffing the HSC and proceeding with its inquiry. On 3-3-75 [redacted] discussed with the Congressman the mechanics for FBI investigations of the HSC staff. In the intervening period no cases were received except one recent case from the HSC which has been ordered to the field. This concerns [redacted], HSC, and formerly connected with the House impeachment inquiry. [redacted] has been in contact with our Project Senstudy 75 group. It is not known when additional investigations will be received from the HSC.

My memorandum to you 4/10/75, tickler copies as above, advised of the formal establishment of a task force called Project Senstudy 75 for the purpose of implementing responses to requests for information from Senate and House Select Committees on Intelligence Activities.

From time to time, requests will be made of various Divisions at FBIHQ for assistance in preparing responses. The Office of Legal Counsel has already contributed considerably in support of Senstudy 75 and is an integral part of the Project.

In order that we may keep an up-to-date record of the cost to the Bureau in handling this Project, each Assistant Director is requested to effect the necessary procedures to maintain such records and by the third of each month furnish by routing slip to W. O. Cregar, Room 4063, JEH Building, the following information: (1) Name of Division reporting; (2) Month for which reporting, which will be month just ended; (3) Man days devoted to Project assistance, broken down by (a) Agent and (b) clerical, including GS level for both Agent and clerical. An example submitted by 5/3/75 would be as follows: (1) GID; (2) Report for 4/75; (3)(a) one-half day @ GS-16; one day @ GS-15; three days @ GS-14; (3)(b) two days @ GS-7; two days @ GS-5.

This is effective commencing 4/1/75 and first routing slip report due 5/3/75 will be for the month of April, 1975.

NOT RECORDED

If a Division has not participated during the preceding month, merely submit a routing slip to this effect.

The cooperation of all is urged so that the necessary cost data may be compiled each month. It is recognized that exact figures will not be feasible and that estimates will be most practical and will suffice.

ACTION: For action as above by each Assistant Director.

SUBJECT: SENSTUDY 75

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE

This memorandum records the formal establishment of a task force entitled Project Senstudy 75.

The concept behind the establishment of this Project is to develop a capability of implementing requests received from Select Committees of the Congress in a comprehensive and timely fashion but yet allow the Bureau to continue to conduct its day-to-day business in as normal a manner as possible. We believe that by creating this facility we will be able to meet the requirements of these Select Committees with the exception of the research that will have to be done in the substantive Divisions.

While the Project will direct internal work and related liaison with the intelligence community and the White House staff, we envision the Legal Analysis Unit Office of Legal Counsel Division as continuing to be the primary point of direct contact with the Select Committees of the Congress. They will receive all requests and deliver all responses to these Committees. In addition, they will meet with the staffs of the Committees to insure the reasonableness of requests. If necessary, they will call upon the expertise of the substantive Division for determination as to whether a proposed request from the Committees can be responded to within a reasonable period of time and within the capabilities of the FBI's information retrieval system.

At the present time four Supervisors have been delegated to work exclusively on the Project. They are as follows:

The Project Manager will be Section Chief William O. Cregar, CI-2 Section, Intelligence Division. His duties will encompass the review of all incoming requests from the Select Committees in an effort to identify policy questions;

Mr. Elmer W. Larson, Unit Chief, Training Unit, IS-3 Section, Intelligence Division will act as Cregar's Number One Man; will administer the work of the Project; and act in the absence of Cregar.

Seymour F. Phillips, Unit Chief, Civil Disorders Reporting Unit, IS-1 Section, Intelligence Division will serve as the Review Coordinator for the Project. His responsibilities will be to review all research; coordinate all responses; be available to consult with substantive Divisions as to proper form of our responses; identify any conflicts in FBI positions where several Divisions are responding to a particular question; as well as to insure the quality, completeness and adequacy of responses to Select Committees requests. Memorandum to Mr. W. R. Wannall
Re: Senstudy 75

Because of the White House insistence that all requests and responses be completely coordinated and available for review by White House representatives, it is imperative that the Project have a self-sustained records facility to insure immediate access to requests received from and responses furnished to the Select Committees. In addition, in those instances where certain FBI documents furnished to the Select Committees must be sanitized (excised), it is imperative this records facility not only retain copies of the sanitized documents but also copies of the original text. For these reasons a senior clerical employee has been requested to function as a Records Manager for the Project.

In addition to the above, there will be stenographic and clerical personnel assigned to the Project to support the work of the Bureau Supervisors. We have not committed any more personnel to the Project than are absolutely necessary at the present time. Should the requests of the Select Committees require additional personnel, appropriate memoranda will be submitted with a complete justification for additional personnel assigned to the Project.

Although the physical space for the Project is limited, all personnel connected with Project Senstudy 75 will be located in Room 4063, J. Edgar Hoover Building. This space is physically located within the Intelligence Division.

As a matter of interest, [redacted] President, has requested that should any member of the intelligence community get requests from other Committees of the Congress which impact on the intelligence community; could be of interest to the White House; or are of such sensitivity that coordination is required, copies of both the requests and an abstract of the responses should be made available to the Interagency Registry.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES

During various contacts with [redacted] of the Senate Select Committee, and Congressman Lucien Nedzi (D-Mich.), Chairman of the House Select Committee, the question has come up regarding the need for a check of the private offices of individual Committee Members to assure the absence of any electronic listening devices. The Committee personnel have been told that we consider this absolutely essential and they agreed.

Referral/Consult OGA

In exploring this matter, it was determined that the Capitol Police Department recently has established a special unit to handle all types of security problems within the Capitol Hill complex, including checks for electronic listening devices. [redacted]

The operations of the unit are controlled through the Sergeants at Arms of the House and Senate [redacted] Subsequent discussion with [redacted] reveals this is not true. Rules 4-17-75. Capital Police Dept.
This matter has been discussed with [redacted] Sergeant at Arms of the Senate, and with Kenneth Harding, Sergeant at Arms of the House. [redacted] advised that the special unit already has conducted complete security surveys of the new office space of the Senate Select Committee and certainly will perform any other checks of this type needed by the Committee or its individual Members. He said, in fact, that since they now have this capability they would oppose any outside agency coming on to the Hill to perform this function. [redacted] said he already has been in contact with [redacted] regarding the necessary security checks, and stated he will let us know when the offices of the Senate Select Committee have been checked. He said their rules require specific requests from the individual Members in writing.

On 4/11/75 the Executive Committee of the Ad Hoc Coordinating Group on Congressional Review for the Intelligence Community was apprised of the discussions with [redacted] of the Senate and with Mr. Kenneth Harding, Sergeant at Arms of the House. Although the Executive Committee would have preferred the FBI to conduct audio sweeps, they interposed no objection to the sweeps being handled by the Capitol Police Department. Mr. Roderick Hills, Counsel to the President, requested, however, that both [redacted] and Mr. Harding be requested to periodically advise the FBI as to the sweeps of Committee space for electronic listening devices. Specifically, [redacted] and Mr. Harding should be asked to furnish the FBI the following: How frequently they will conduct a counteraudio sweep, what offices will be swept, will the results of such sweeps be furnished the FBI, and will the FBI be immediately notified should the Capitol Police locate an electronic listening device?

TO : Mr. Cleveland W. S.

FROM : G. R. Steel RS HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE

SUBJECT: SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES (SSC)
HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES (HSC)

DATE: 4-3-75

By agreement, the FBI is currently conducting [redacted] regarding SSC staff personnel. These have extremely short (2 week) deadlines which are identical to those afforded Presidential appointments and are, therefore, given preferential treatment in opening, assigning, and following field progress. The Special Inquiry Unit of the Employees Security and Special Inquiry Section, which has about twice its normal case load, is handling these requests. Senator Church, Chairman, SSC, originally estimated that between 35 and 40 staff members would be submitted for investigation. As of today, 4-3-75, we have received requests for 65 such investigations from the SSC and the end does not appear to be in sight. They are received in bunches as many as 6 at a time, which is not the even flow expected and presents an additional burden.

In addition it is expected that similar requests will be forthcoming in the near future from the HSC since we have a similar agreement with it. Congressman Nedzi, Chairman of the HSC, has estimated "probably no more than about 25 staff members will be hired." It remains to be seen if this estimate also falls short of actual receipts.

Since there is no charge for these [redacted] they will have to be considered in the budget. It is noted the current charge for [redacted], where applicable, is $2028.

ACTION: For information. Since it appears the nucleus of the Committee has been formed, it is suggested Senator Church be contacted and queried regarding a more realistic (30 day) deadline on the remaining investigations concerning future staff members and their replacements.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE

The purpose of this memorandum is to recommend that all responses for the production of records, etc., received from Congressional committees be forwarded by letterhead memorandum through the Deputy Attorney General to the requesting committee, and also that in selected instances a property stamp or statement be affixed to certain documents limiting access.

With the proliferation of committees in Congress looking into FBI operations, it is essential that a standard procedure for the forwarding of documents to the requesting committees be established. Inasmuch as requests such as the request of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities have been forwarded to this Bureau through the Department, it would appear logical that responses to such inquiries and all other inquiries of Congressional committees, whether they be directed to the Department and/or the Bureau, be responded to through the Department. Such a procedure not only will make all our responses consistent but will also give the Department an opportunity review and approve documents being made available to Congress.

In connection with our preparation of responses to requests of Congressional committees, it is suggested that all responses should be by letterhead memorandum, the first paragraph of which should clearly describe the specific request which is being responded to in the letterhead memorandum.

In those instances where documents are of a nature that we are not desirous of unauthorized personnel, whether they be in Congress or otherwise, having access to, we should affix a property stamp. This property stamp should read as follows:

"This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside of your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the contents may not be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express approval of the FBI."

Rules:

The Committee adopted rules for the conduct of its business. A copy will be obtained as soon as possible.

Representatives Dellums (D-Calif.) and Harrington voted for the amendment; the other Members against. h

Method of Operation:

After adopting the rules, the Committee asked [redacted], his plans for the conduct of the Committee's business.

There will be an Executive Staff to analyze broad policy questions, coordinate and assimilate the work of the several task forces, make recommendations to the Committee, and draft legislative proposals.

Five task forces will be formed. One task force will work with [redacted] the second with the Department of Justice and its agencies (including the FBI), the third with the Department of Defense and its agencies, the fourth with [redacted] and the fifth with other agencies including the Internal Revenue Service.

The head of each task force will be assisted by two or three "lawyer-investigator types" [redacted] words) and three or four clerical employees. Approximately 42 to 45 staff employees will be hired including 20 to 22 professionals. Also, great use will be made of consultants.

The staff has begun to collect public information and informally has contacted the Rockefeller Commission and the Senate Select Committee about access, if any, to their information. The staff anticipates requesting information from intelligence agencies in June, 1975.

The staff plans to present to the Committee for its general information a general outline of the structure and functions of the intelligence agencies.

Congressman Edwards (D-Calif.) thought most Members will do as much of the investigative work as they can, and suggested a one or two day visit by the Committee at the agencies for an orientation would be informative and helpful.

Representative McClory (R-Ill.) said he and Representative Kasten (R-Wisc.) visited the CIA and thought the visit beneficial.

The Committee adjourned subject to the call of the chair.

After adjournment, [redacted] advised Representative Edwards that if the Committee desired to visit FBI Headquarters, [redacted] will do whatever he can to assist the Committee.

[redacted] also met [redacted] and [redacted] Staff Member. [redacted] offered his assistance to [redacted] (formerly a member of Chairman Nedzi's (D-Mich.) staff). Circumstances did not permit a conversation with [redacted].

By memorandum F. B. Griffith to Mr. Bassett captioned "Senstudy 75" dated 2/6/75, you were advised that "Senstudy 75" is the code word for the control file (62-116395) containing all communications relating to the Senate Select Committee's (SSC) investigation and study of Governmental operations with respect to intelligence activities.

In mid-February, 1975, the House of Representatives created a Select Committee on Intelligence Activities which will have virtually the same jurisdiction and responsibilities as the above SSC. To date, practically all our work has been related to the SSC and only very recently has the House Select Committee (HSC) made any efforts to commence staffing.

As it appears, we can expect in the near future requests from the HSC similar to that already received from the SSC and in order to facilitate the administrative handling and retrieval, where necessary, of HSC requests and this Bureau response to same, the code word "Houstudy 75" is being assigned to the control file (62-116464) containing all communications pertaining to the HSC and related matters.

Reference is made to my memorandum of 6/9/75 advising that Houstudy 75 is the code word assigned to the control file containing communications pertaining to requests made by the House of Representatives Select Committee on Intelligence Activities, which is separate and distinct from Senstudy 75, which is the code word assigned to the control file containing communications pertaining to requests made by the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence Activities.

You will recall that my memorandum to you dated 4/11/75 captioned Senstudy 75, which was approved, recommended that due to the unusual factors relating to the Senstudy Project, such as the sensitive nature of material involved and urgency of handling, that Files and Communications Division arrange for the maintenance of the Senstudy file in the work area of those assigned to the Senstudy Project, Room 4063 JEH.

The purpose of this memorandum is to request that Files and Communications Division, for reasons similar to that cited for the Senstudy Project, effect similar arrangements for the maintenance of the Houstudy file in Room 4063 JEH.

The above has been discussed with Mr. J. W. Awe, Unit Chief of the Files and Communications Division.

RECOMMENDATION:

This memorandum be referred to the Files and Communications Division for action requested above.

Ex Congressman Nedzi has resigned this date as Chairman of above-captioned committee. We currently have ready for delivery several summaries containing results of investigations conducted for the HSC. Others will be coming due. At the request of the Chairman these summaries are directed and delivered to him. Since a new Chairman has not been named we are holding the summaries in abeyance until a new Chairman has been designated to whom we can disseminate results of investigations.

It has been determined by SA Richard Taylor, Legal Analysis Office, that a new Chairman will probably not be named until the first part of the week of June 16. When a new Chairman has been designated the summary memoranda which have accumulated will be delivered to him by SA Taylor who will explain the reason for the delivery of such a large number of summaries at one time. This has been coordinated with the Legal Analysis Office. Z

On July 16, 1975, the House continued debate on H.Res. 591. No resolution was reached and the House postponed further consideration on the matter.

As you have been advised, H. Res. 591 would abolish the Select Committee on Intelligence established by H. Res. 138, and establish a new Select Committee on Intelligence exactly like the original Committee but with 13 Members.

The House rejected two amendments to H. Res. 591. The amendment of Representative Quillen of Tennessee would have abolished the present House Select Committee and made no provision for a new Committee. The amendment of Representative Anderson of Illinois would have abolished the present Select Committee and established a joint Committee with an ad hoc Committee serving until the Senate concurred.

ADDITIONAL VIEWS OF THE HONORABLE

JOHN B. ANDERSON

At this critical impasse in the intelligence inquiry, the House must decide whether it simply wants to play a game of reverse musical chairs with its intelligence committee (add more chairs for more players to march in wider circles to the same tune), or whether it wants to seize on the moment to take a more constructive step forward by both completing the present investigation and creating a more permanent intelligence oversight mechanism for the Congress.

House Resolution 591 adopts the former approach in the hope that dilution is the solution (especially if certain active and inactive ingredients can be separated in the process). This would seem to be a workable formula (assuming the new solvent mixes well with the base). But no mix of magic potions (or metaphors) can cloud the fact that we are going to rather lengthy extremes to accomplish a very limited objective: we are abolishing a committee for the sole purpose of removing one or two members, then resurrecting it (Phoenix-like) with an expanded membership.

As long as we're going to all this trouble, would it not make sense to accomplish more in the process, namely, taking the first step toward creating a permanent joint committee on intelligence oversight? Is there any reason to wait another six months or more for the House and Senate intelligence committees to make this inevitable recommendation, especially when it has already been proposed by the Rockefeller and Murphy commissions and numerous bills and resolutions have been introduced to implement this proposal?

I intend to offer a substitute resolution aimed at achieving the dual objectives of completing the present investigation and moving forward on the joint committee proposal. Under the terms of my substitute, as soon as the House adopts a bill or resolution creating a permanent joint committee on intelligence oversight (by whatever name), it shall be in order to immediately appoint the House members for the purpose of assuming the full authority presently delegated to our Select Committee on Intelligence. The House half of the joint committee would serve as an interim ad hoc committee on intelligence until such time that the Senate takes final action on the joint committee proposal. The interim ad hoc committee would operate under the provisions and conditions, and using the remaining available funds, of House Resolution 138 (which established the Select Committee on Intelligence), and all papers, documents and other materials generated by the Select Committee would be transferred to the interim ad hoc committee.

The main objection raised to this proposal is that there would be a lull in the investigation between the adoption of my resolution and subsequent House action on the joint committee measure. I do not think this presents a significant problem in that the chairman of the Rules Committee pledged on July 10 to set hearings on the joint committee proposal at the earliest convenience of the committee. And, as I have already indicated, several excellent bills are now pending in the committee to accomplish this. There is no reason why the Rules Committee could not report such a bill to the House before the August recess once the House makes clear through the adoption of my resolution that this is the course it wishes to pursue. Since my resolution also provides for the payment of select committee staff salaries one month beyond the abolition of the select committee, there would be no problem for the new interim ad hoc committee to retain what existing staff it desired.

In conclusion, I would urge the House to take a positive step forward through the adoption of my substitute rather than simply shuffling a few chairs.

JOHN B. ANDERSON.

SUBJECT: HOUSTUDY

Reference is made to memo Walsh to Mr. Jenkins dated 8/5/75 (copy attached) and attached communications from the House Select Committee requesting information, interviews, and testimony of Bureau officials beginning at 10 AM on 8/7/75.

A part of the information being requested by the House Select Committee relates to informants, confidential funds, and the Bureau's procedures related thereto. The Computer Systems Division (CSD) has been requested to prepare responses to questions raised in categories F (4), H, and J. After reviewing the House Select Committee's request in depth, it is the opinion of the CSD that the Committee is not requesting the information be made available in preparation for the Bureau's testimony beginning on Thursday. In the second paragraph in the letter from [REDACTED] and Chief Counsel, for the House Select Committee to [REDACTED] Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, U. S. Department of Justice, the request is made to be given "... immediate access to the following materials:". It appears then that rather than requesting the information itself, the House Select Committee is requesting to be given access to that information.

EX-101 REC-1 62-116464-18

In reviewing the items related to informants and payment matters, it is obvious the requested access would disclose the entire Bureau operation and all documentation relating to confidential informants over whatever period they may have in mind. Their period of interest is, of course, not indicated and as such presents tremendous problems in assessing the amount of information they may wish to review. The CSD feels that if the Select Committee is given access to confidential informant information, it should be with the qualification that they will not be given access to any information which will disclose the location or identity of the informant. The information to which they have access should be the general policies and procedures for handling this program and any monetary information on an accumulated or gross payments basis. It is recommended the information made available to the House Select Committee covering policies and procedures be the same as that recently provided the Department of Justice in this area.

It should also be recognized that the very general areas of interest contained in this letter would present insurmountable problems should we be required to provide information to meet these requests in the future. It should be noted that almost all of our payments to informants are multiple payments and the documentation of individual payments to informants for any significant period of time (even for several months) would be a monumental task and basically shut down our operation for handling our routine work. Of course, their request under "all data pertaining to confidential funds and payment procedures relating thereto" is so general that they have given no limit to the documentation that we would have to supply and we could not really respond in total unless we gave them every available piece of documentation in existence in the Bureau on this matter. It is further necessary then to come to some agreeable limit with the House Select Committee as to the amounts and types of information we would have to supply if it becomes necessary to actually provide the information in the future.

RECOMMENDATION:

That this matter be brought to the attention of the Legal Counsel and Administrative Divisions so that they may respond to the House Select Committee and additionally negotiate reasonable limits to the amount of information which might be supplied in the future.

The request of 7-24-75 requests the Bureau make available to Committee staff members [redacted] and [redacted] documents and material relating to budgetary matters as contained in their aforementioned letter of 7-22-75. This particular letter states [redacted] and [redacted] have received security clearances.

In accordance with the desires of Mr. Shaheen and in coordination with the Administration Division, a briefing ~~has been~~ ^{was} arranged for 7-29-75 concerning budgetary matters by Assistant Director Eugene W.
